

Six Spectacular Sessions

Schools can choose from a morning or an afternoon session; each session lasts 90 minutes. Sessions take place at 10.00am to 11.30am or 12.30pm to 2.00pm. We offer a choice of six sessions designed to fit in with the Primary Framework for literacy and the Secondary National Strategy. All sessions include an introductory talk about Roald Dahl and time in the Museum to explore the galleries. The sessions are rounded off with a workshop, details of the choices are listed below together with the suggested age range.

Wordplay by Dahl's Chickens (or is it Charles Dickens?)

Pupils will look at the ways Roald Dahl played with rhyme and humour and created his own Gobblefunk language. They will make up their own nonsensical vocabulary using examples from Roald Dahl's works as inspiration.

Suitable for Years 3 to 6 (children aged 7 to 11)

Crocky-Wock's Creative Characters

Just like Roald Dahl, pupils will use pictures of people as a starting point to create and bring to life their own bogtrotting baddy or glorumptious goody. They will also discover more about the characters who never made it into Roald Dahl's published books.

Suitable for Years 3 to 6 (children aged 7 to 11)

Revolting Rhymes

Pupils will look at the way Roald Dahl used rhymes within his stories. In the Story Centre they will use the activities to create their own rhyming words and phrases and bring their ideas back to Miss Honey's Classroom to create a class masterpiece.

Suitable for Years 3 to 6 (aged 7 to 11)

Matilda's Top Tips

Pupils will find out how some of the best-loved children's authors get their good ideas for stories. They will use the props and displays around the galleries and in Miss Honey's Classroom to help find fantabulous ideas to defeat the scary blank page.

Suitable for Years 3 to 6 (aged 7 to 11)

Biography of a Boazer

Pupils will look at different events in Roald Dahl's exciting life and explore his writing hut to allow them to piece together a biography of this great storyteller, one of their heroes or even write an autobiography of their own.

Suitable for Years 5 to 8 (aged 9 to 14)

Tales of the Unexpected

Pupils will discover the aspects of Roald Dahl's childhood and adult life which inspired the ideas for many of his stories. They will use events from their own lives to begin to create their own tale with a twist.

Suitable for Years 5 to 8 (aged 9 to 14)
